Section 54, Subdivision 6 of the
New York Workers' Compensation Law

Sect. 54, Subd. 6

"6. Insurance of officer of corporations. Every executive officer of a corporation other than a religious, charitable or educational corporation, or elective or appointive officers of a municipal corporation, or officers of any post or chapter of organizations of veterans of any war of the United States shall be deemed to be included in the compensation insurance contract or covered under a certificate of self-insurance unless that person is an unsalaried executive officer of a not-for-profit unincorporated association or not-for-profit corporation and such association, or corporation elects to exclude that person from the coverage of this chapter. Such election shall be made in writing on a form prescribed by the chairman and filed with the insurance carrier. Such election shall be effective with respect to all of the policies issued to the corporation or association by such insurance carrier as long as it shall continuously insure the corporation or association, provided that written notice of the continuation of the election for each executive officer is given to the corporation or association with each renewal notice of the policy. Such election shall not be revoked until thirty days after a notice of revocation in writing has been filed with the chairman and with the insurance carrier on a form prescribed by the chairman. Any executive officer whose corporation or association files an election not to be included under this chapter shall be deemed not to be an employee within the intent of this chapter; however, if not excluded, such officers and their dependents shall be entitled to compensation as provided by this chapter."
