

Some medical bills are hard to swallow – yours shouldn't be

As an injured worker, you deserve the best medical care available. You and your employer do not deserve a bill for treatments that benefit the doctor more than you.

TYPICAL INDICATORS OF MEDICAL BILLING FRAUD:

- Very brief visits with little or no examination or treatment given
- Medical treatment given by receptionists or other non-medical personnel
- Overcharging for medical services
- Medical equipment dispensed without explanation or instructions for use
