

SAFETY BASICS

CHEMICAL SAFETY

Never place chemicals in beverage bottles or coffee cups. This could lead to accidental ingestion resulting in chemical poisoning.

Never sniff a chemical to determine its properties.

Never mix unlike chemicals unless you are absolutely sure it is safe.

For pharmacists, place medications in their proper storage locations and have adequate security measures in place to guard against theft.

Keep emergency phone numbers handy.