

CUSTOMER APPRECIATION

Black River Regulating District, 85 Years

This New York State public benefit corporation regulates water flow in two great watersheds in the Adirondack region: the Upper Hudson River and the Black River.

Photo (l.-r.): Black River Acting Director John Hodgson, NYSIF Rep John McCann

Reformed Dutch Church of NYC, 85 Years

Established in 1628, the Reformed Dutch congregation now consists of four Manhattan churches – the Marble, Middle, West End and Fort Washington Collegiate Church.

Photo: Director, Property Management Michael Cronin

Ambassador Fuel & Oil Burner, 80 Years

Ambassador Fuel & Oil Burner provides delivery, maintenance and repair for customers in New York City and lower Westchester County.

Photo (l.-r.): NYSIF Rep Dean Harvey, Ambassador Controller Danielle Florio

Quaker Ridge Golf Club, Scarsdale, 80 Years

The A.W. Tillinghast-designed course (par-70, 7,008 yds.) opened in 1918 and hosted the 1936 Metropolitan Open, featuring golf greats Bryan Nelson and Gene Sarazen, and the 1997 Walker Cup.

Photo (l.-r.): NYSIF Field Rep Gerard Pinto, Quaker Ridge Controller Ann Freeman

19th Street Associates, NYC, 75 Years

A third-generation real estate firm, 19th Street Associates maintains a vast portfolio, including brokerage, property and asset management and acquisitions.

Photo: Superintendent Benjamin Kaufman

Prince Lumber, NYC, 75 Years

Family-owned and operated since 1923, Prince Lumber meets a broad range of construction needs and products.

Photo (l.-r.): General Manager Michael Kurtz, CFO Christine Zotinis